Mayor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, emergency medical professionals and volunteers provide medical care to victims of sudden life threatening injuries and illnesses, often under stressful conditions and in high risk situations, to save lives of others; and

WHEREAS, emergency medical personnel must rapidly assess, manage and effectively provide care in unpredictable situations requiring life and death judgments; and

WHEREAS, emergency medical personnel are often the first contact many residents and visitors to Florida have with the health care system, and these personnel provide education, assessment, prevention and referral services in addition to their emergency activities; and

WHEREAS the residents of and visitors of the State of Florida benefit daily from the efforts of skilled dispatchers, first responders, emergency medical technicians, paramedics, emergency and trauma nurses, educators, emergency and trauma physicians and support personnel; and

WHEREAS it is critical that the general public be made aware of, understand, support and effectively use its local emergency medical services system; and

WHEREAS, recognition is due to all members of emergency medical personnel serving in a variety of roles for their unselfish dedication to Florida's residents and visitors.

NOW THEREFORE, by the power vested in me as the Mayor of Monroe County, Florida I do hereby proclaim May 14 through 20, 2006 as
